University Experience Day – Thursday 11 July 2024

St Lucia

Join us for the University of Queensland Student Experience Day.

The UQ QETA Economics Schools Day is an immersive and interactive learning day designed for high school students. The annual event is hosted in partnership with the Queensland Economics Teachers' Association (QETA) and is open to any year 11 and 12 students.

Throughout the day, students have the opportunity to attend lecture-style presentations, network with other students from around Brisbane, and participate in thought-provoking activities on a myriad of social issues such as sustainability and healthcare.

Students will have the opportunity to:

- Learn concepts relevant to the curriculum directly from leading academic economists
- Experience university life on campus
- Update their economics knowledge and understanding
- Explore future career opportunities and hear from current economics students.
